Companies hiring fresher through elitmus 2017-18

E-litmus companies list - Dear readers, let me narrate you a small story of my B.tech degree. It is final year when we realize that we actually started our college journey. I always wonder why people go to college till 3rd year?

Most simple answer for today's generation is that we go to college to get a degree. But i feel our degree is not worth unless we get a good campus placement in reputed company. When i joined college, believe me, classes schedule time table was the only thing i knew that time.

By keeping this in mind, what we should know in our early days of college to get high package salary, i'm writing on this website alpingi.com. Here i discuss wide range of subject like tips to prepare for eLitmus exam, preparation tips for amcat exam and companies interview and how to crack them in smartest way.

As per my experience, Elitmus is one of the best test get a job especially if you are from CS/IT background. Packages varies from 3 -10 lpa, It's totally on you technical and soft skills to convert the call from any company. Candidates gets package of on avg if they gets calls from CISCO (6.5 lpa), Sonos(5.5 lpa), CGI(2.75lpa), Mindtree (3.2lpa), Accenture (3.2lpa).
