

JEE Main Eligibility Criteria 2018 - Age Limit/Percentage/No of attempts

JEE Main Eligibility Criteria 2018 - Here is a Good news for the students who want to appear for JEE Examination. We have collected our information from all the trusted sources for the inspiring candidates who want to clear JEE exam with high percentage. You can find complete eligibility criteria which includes age limit, number of attempt, percentage criteria and passing marks here.

JEE Main Eligibility Criteria 2018

JEE examination will be decided by the CBSE Board. Its exams are conducted by authority which organized Joint Entrance Examination (JEE Main). This exam is conducted through online and offline process both so as to facilitate the candidates and help them to have their bright future. now lets check the complete JEE Main Eligibility Criteria in detail.

Worried about JEE Main Selection process? - Check here--> JEE Main Selection Process

Eligibility Criteria for JEE Main 2018

Pursuing candidates must satisfy these eligibility conditions before applying for JEE Main 2018. The Eligibility Criteria for JEE Main 2018 is that the candidate should pass 12th class or have scored 45% marks in each subject.

Candidates has to clear minimum 5 subjects in 12th examination. Inspiring candidates can appear for JEE Main 2018 must have to clear the subjects i.e. Physics, Chemistry & mathematics in order to apply.

Passing Marks for JEE Main 2018

The applicants who want admission to NITs, IIITs, and CFTIs must score minimum of 75% marks (65% for SC/ST students) in the exam.

CBSE has made some changes which came in to existence from this year. That updates are as follows-

Aadhaar Card Number

All the candidates who want to apply for JEE Main 2018 should have an Aadhaar Card Number issued by UIDAI. This number is required at the time of filling application form of JEE Main 2018. With this the candidate has to enter date of birth, name & gender which gets the confirmation with UIDAI's data. It is very important that each and every information should match else the application form will be rejected.

Age Limit of JEE Mains 2018

For general and OBC candidates who wants to apply for JEE Mains 2018 should be born on or after 1st October, 1993.

If candidates belong to reserved category like SC, ST and PwD category than there will be a relaxation of the date of birth on or after 1st October 1988 are also eligible for JEE Main 2018 application.

Provision for J&K, Assam and Meghalaya Candidates

The candidates who have pursued or completed 12th class from J&K, Assam and Meghalaya, they have to fill ration card number, passport number , bank account number or any other applicable Govt. identity number.

Here, no board marks are given importance while calculating the marks of JEE Main 2018.

The Main Subjects of JEE Main 2018

The candidates should have studied these 5 subjects in 12th. For B.E. B.Tech the candidate must and have studied Physics and Mathematics and must have studied Chemistry. Biology, Biotechnology. They should score 50% marks in Mathematics.

The Eligibility Criteria of Passing Year for JEE Mains 2018

The candidates who have passed 12th class in 2015 or 2016 can apply for JEE Mains 2018. The students who are currently (i.e in 2017) in 12th class can also apply for the JEE Mains 2018.

- If the candidate has appeared in 12th class in 2015 and is not able to clear the exam in 2015 than he is not eligible to apply.
- If the candidate is able to qualify in 12th exam in 2017 and appears for the improvement in 2018, than top 20 percentile cut-off for 2017 will be considered.
- If candidate appears in all subjects in 2018, then the best of the two subjects written are considered.

Appearing Candidates for JEE Main 2018

- If the candidate has appeared in 12th or equivalent class in 2018 than they are also eligible for JEE Main 2018.
- NIOS candidates can also apply for this exam
- Diploma holders can also apply for JEE Main 2018. Their rank and marks are given importance at the time of admission.

Now, We think that our hard work really pays and our students are really going to take the benefit from our information.

If you have any confusion over JEE Main Eligibility Criteria 2018 then please comment. We are always ready to support you as we are available for 24 hours just to answer your queries.